

CASE TAKING & REPERTORIZATION 6 DAYS ROTP MODULE

Module 1

History of repertory. Case taking – principles and techniques. Relevance of the principles of case taking in 'Organon' with current advances in modern medicine and psychiatry. How to teach Case taking. Demonstrate application of case taking methods in different clinical situations. Demonstration of case taking techniques in the clinic, in the wards and in the community. Evolving a format of interview evaluation for perfecting the art of the interview. Standardization of case records – Acute a chronic. How to teach recording of symptoms in the case formats. Analysis and evaluation of the case for repertorization.