To,

The Principals/Head of all AYUSH colleges/institutions

Subject:- Seeking proposals to conduct CME for AYUSH personnel for the year 2020-21 – reg.

Sir,

Greetings!

You would be aware that Rashtriya Ayurveda Vidyapeeth (RAV), an autonomous organization under the aegis of Ministry of AYUSH, primarily involved in disseminating informal ways of learning in Ayurveda & Nodal agency for Accreditation of various Ayurveda courses not covered under IMCC Act 1970 and Ayurveda courses being run in abroad. RAV is also nodal agency for Continuing Medical Education (CME) scheme of Ministry of AYUSH, Govt. of India.

CME scheme is a Central Sector Scheme implemented in 11th Plan to endow training to AYUSH personnel for upgrading their professional competence & skills and their capacity building.

Continuing Medical Education provide pedagogical innovative and cutting edge education to wide spectrum of AYUSH healthcare professionals and could be considered as an important tool to upgrade the skills and knowledge of medical professionals eventually to improve the quality of health care of human being.

Yours, being an AYUSH institute/ scientific institute involved in handling issues related to medical education / science can be a major stakeholder in organizing the theme specific training to AYUSH personnel. You are, therefore, suggested to explore the possibilities for conducting such training programmes at your Institute.

Accordingly, a formal proposal containing a module of training and budgetary requirements in this regard may be send to RAV for consideration. It is pertinent to mention here that proposals must be sent in soft copy only (both in world file as well as in PDF format) for the consideration. None of the proposal would be accepted in hard copy The detailed guidelines for CME Scheme are enclosed for ready reference and the same is also available on www.ravdelhi.nic.in.

For any query / further information you may contact to Dr. Ubaid, Project Manager, CME Scheme (Mobile no. 9210487743).

Looking forward to listen from you in this regard.

Yours faithfully,

(Dr. Anupam Srivastava)
Director
